

The HOPE – Selwyn Knowledge Exchange for Research on Ageing

Why

- Leading researchers share their research journey
- Tips on starting your own research journey
- Present your own research
- Ideas forum
 - What are the research gaps in NZ?
 - Opportunity to develop your research ideas
 - Networking and collaboration

When

Friday, 17 November 2017, 9.00am - 6.00pm

Where

Tamaki Innovation Campus, University of Auckland, 261 Morrin Road, St Johns, Auckland 1072

Who should attend

Students, Fellows and Researchers in any gerontology/ageing research, those interested in research opportunities in this field

Registration

Essential - No cost associated with attending

Send completed registration form to: MareeT@adhb.govt.nz

HOPE – Selwyn Knowledge Exchange

For Research on Ageing

Registration Form

Title _____ First Name _____

Last Name _____

Email _____

Phone _____

Address _____

Current Position _____

Any research interests _____

Special dietary requirements _____

Please note there is no cost involved to register, however it is essential to complete and submit this form for catering purposes.

Return to:

Dr Maree Todd

Chair of HOPE Foundation for Research on Ageing:

c/o MareeT@adhb.govt.nz