

Welcome from your Chaplain

Our vision

I take this opportunity to welcome you to Selwyn Oaks. The Selwyn Foundation makes spiritual care available to guests, residents, relatives, and members of staff regardless of any religious affiliation.

Chaplains work alongside other members of staff to contribute to the wellbeing of all. We seek to nurture a culture of care in the village where all are valued, residents are enabled to have their spiritual needs met, and staff members have access to pastoral and spiritual care. The chaplain's main focus is on the pastoral and spiritual care.

Spirituality refers to our deep sense of purpose, meaning and value in life, and our connection to that which is beyond us. It is a universal human experience. For some people religious belief and practices nurture their spirituality.

To contribute to your spiritual wellbeing we can support you through times of transition and through challenging times; such as illness, disability, grief, life changes, broken and estranged relationships.

We may care for you by spending time with you to listen to your joys and concerns, by praying with you, or blessing your new home or room. Or you might want specific support in difficult or challenging times in your life.
